

Royal Cornwall Show

Many thanks to Judith Barbour for making the long trip from Scotland to Cornwall to judge strong classes of Suffolks at the Royal Cornwall Show having to contend with torrential rain and gale force winds that very nearly demolished the sheep marquee. The weather thankfully let up for a short period during judging. Judith found her overall champion with Ross Lawrence's (Roundacre Flock) ram lamb, sired by Forkins Figo out of a Strathisla Speed ewe and reserve overall went to Mike Waycott's (Longridge Flock) homebred ewe sired by Longridge of Ace of Spades. Interbreed was cancelled due to weather.
