

South of England Show

Many thanks to our judge of the day, Sheila Eggleston from Leicestershire who had the enjoyable task of selecting the winning sheep from a good line up at the show. Also to Brian Glaves from Scarborough for judging the inter-breed group of three and the supreme championship.

Congratulation to Matt Legge who won breed champion and went on to win reserve supreme champion, and to Diana Lindon who won the interbreed group of three; out of a class of twenty something entries. The full results were as follows:
