

SUFFOLKS WERE FLYING IN BLESSINTON

Blessington Mart was the venue last Saturday for a very successful collective sale of purebred Suffolks ewes and ewe lambs. Seventy three sheep were catalogued with virtually an entire clearance.

Sale topper was Lot 69, a ewe lamb by Cairness Renovator from S & S Gahan's Barrowlands Flock selling for 2,900gns sold to Seamus Browne. Errigal flock

Arthur & Susan O'Keeffe from Annakisha & Clyda Flocks Cork enjoyed a full clearance for a strong consignment receiving 2,200gns for Lot 16 a Castlewellan Sportsman shearling in lamb to Solwaybank Super Sensation sold to James Rooney, Benviskin flock, and 1,800gns for Lot 66 a Sportsman ewe lamb sold to Seamus Browne, Errigal flock

Donegal Breeders Andrew and Richard Wilson's Castleisle and Shannagh Flocks produced a quality consignment securing their top price of 2,000gns for Lot 39 a Glenho Generaux shearling in lamb to Cairness Liam, the highest profile ram in the Suffolk Breed sold to Eamon Duffy, Kells Flock. Eamon Duffy also purchased Lot 10 for 1100gns. Lot 25, a classy shearling by Kings High and Mighty sold for 1500gns to Ger Reid.
