

Taking the overall championship at the Royal Highland Show under the watchful eye of Steven Buckley was the Mair family's aged ewe. Coming through as female champion NAJ:13:057 is a one crop ewe by the 8000gns Rhaeadr Roger Ram Jet. She is bred from a show winning family and stood fourth in the gimmer class at the Royal Highland 2014 and first at Turriff Show. Her great-granddam won her class at the Highland on four occasions winning the championship twice.

Standing reserve champion was Gordon Troup's male champion Rhaeadr High Roller. This shearling tup was purchased as a lamb in Stirling last year for 4200gns. Sired by Rhaeadr The Real McCoy he is out of a Baileys BMW sired dam.

Gordon also took reserve spot in the male championship with his tup lamb L52:15:00859. He is sired by the male champion Rhaeadr High Roller and is out of a dam by Diamond Jubilee.

Reserve in the female championship was Iain and Judith Barbour's Solwaybank Casino Royale sired gimmer FHT:14:00831. Her dam is by Cairness Castello.

In the other classes Sandy Fraser stood top of the aged tup class with Glenhead Star Command. This Cairness Commander son is out of a dam by Cairness Ninty Nine.

Heading the biggest class of the day with 25 ewe lambs forward was Angus and Sue Howie's SNF:15:00433. She is a Middlemuir Maserati daughter out of 33H:12:020, a Whitestone Footprint daughter.

Iain and Judith Barbour won the group of three class with their second prize tup lamb FHT:15:01075, first prize gimmer FHT:14:00831 and second prize ewe JOD:11:005.
